PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR DEFAULT
JUDGMENT AGAINST DEFENDANTS LTSC/FORMHANDLE

Gordon Roy Parker, Plaintiff in the above-styled action, hereby submits this motion for default judgment against Defendants LTSC and Formhandle, and in support thereof, submits the following:

1. Defendants LTSC and Formhandle were served with a copy of the Summons and Complaint in this action by overnight mail on September 1, 2005.
2. The overnight mail for each Defendant was signed for and received by M. Fung on September 2, 2005. An Affidavit of Supplemental Service has been concurrently filed and is attached hereto as Exhibit A and incorporated by reference as if fully set forth verbatim herein.
3. Federal Rule 4(e)(1) permits service of a summons and complaint "pursuant to the law of the state in which the district court is located."
4. Pennsylvania Rule 403 allows for service by any form of mail requiring a signature, when service by mail is permitted.
5. Pennsylvania Rule 404 permits service by signature mail for Defendants located outside of the Commonwealth.

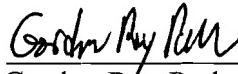

6. Federal Rule 12(a)(1)(A) requires that an answer be served within 20 days, or alternatively, a motion to dismiss pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6), or for a more definitive answer pursuant to Rule 15.

7. No such pleading has been filed within the time limits.

RELIEF SOUGHT

WHEREAS, no timely answer or motion to dismiss has been filed in response to a properly served Summons and Complaint, Plaintiff is entitled to default judgment. An appropriate form of order is attached.

This the 7th day of October, 2005.

“If a rule of civil procedure authorizes original process to be served by mail, a copy of the process shall be mailed to the defendant by any form of mail requiring a receipt signed by the defendant or his authorized agent. Service is complete upon delivery of the mail.”

1. If the mail is returned with notation by the postal authorities that the defendant refused to accept the mail, the plaintiff shall have the right of service by mailing a copy to the defendant at the same address by ordinary mail with the return address of the sender appearing thereon. Service by ordinary mail is complete if the mail is not returned to the sender within fifteen days after mailing.
2. If the mail is returned with notation by the postal authorities that it was unclaimed, the plaintiff shall make service by another means pursuant to these rules. (Emphasis Added).

2. Pennsylvania Rule 404. Pennsylvania Rule 404 states that service of a

Defendant outside the Commonwealth may be effected “by mail in the manner provided by Rule 403.”

III. ARGUMENT

This motion will hinge on the interpretation of FRCP 4(e)(1).

A. FRCP 4(e)(1) Allows For Service Pursuant To Pennsylvania Law.

The language of FRCP 4(e)(1) indicates that service may be made “pursuant to the law of the state in which the district court is located.” The only question here is whether or not “the district court” referenced in the rule is “located” in Pennsylvania or Massachusetts. Precedent is sparse (Plaintiff could not locate any), but the wording of FRCP(4)(e)(1) would be superfluous unless it was referring to Pennsylvania, since the rule also allows for service pursuant to the state law of where the district court is located or in which service is effected. The wording would be redundant, as the district court would always be “located” where service is effected under that definition. The rule therefore must refer to Pennsylvania.

Even if the rule does not refer to Pennsylvania, however, because Defendants LTSC and Formhandle do business in Pennsylvania, and receive money from its residents, they should be treated as Pennsylvania Defendants who are located outside of the Commonwealth and therefore subject to state law for service of process under Pennsylvania Rules 403-404.

B. Both Defendants Were Properly Served And Are Now In Default

To the extent that this Court recognizes service as proper, both Defendants LTSC and Formhandle are in default.

IV. CONCLUSION

For the reasons set forth hereinabove, default judgment should be entered against Defendants LTSC and Formhandle, and in favor of Plaintiff.

This the 7th day of October, 2005.
